

I hear you are going to replace Klove with another station. George Barna did a research study on children and it was found that we are not doing a good job raising them. If we continue at this rate, we will have no qualified leaders to leave behind and that leaves us vulnerable.

Klove is a radio station where they can learn values and ethics when no other learning source is available. It is in the best public interest that this type of radio station stay on the air.